

April 2, 2019

For immediate release

City of Moncton Seeking Nominations for Order of Moncton 2019

MONCTON – The City of Moncton is looking for nominations for its most prestigious and highest ranking honour: the Order of Moncton. Since 2010, this annual award recognizes and distinguishes nominated Monctonians for their significant contributions and outstanding achievements to Moncton’s social, cultural or economic fabric.

Nominations and letters of support must be submitted by Friday, June 14, 2019. The nomination form may be submitted online at moncton.ca/orderofmoncton or obtained at City Hall, 655 Main Street.

Nominees must be past or present, long-term residents of Moncton who have brought honour to Moncton on a national or international scale. Incomplete applications will not be considered, and it should be noted that elected representatives currently serving on Moncton City Council, the Provincial Legislature, the House of Commons, the Senate, and judges of any court are not eligible for nomination.

Recipients will be chosen by the Order of Moncton Selection Committee which is comprised of Council members, citizens and a staff advisory group.

To view past recipients visit moncton.ca/orderofmoncton.

-30-

Media Contact:

Isabelle LeBlanc, Director
Communications, City of Moncton
506-853-3592 / Isabelle.leblanc@moncton.ca