Traffic and Transportation: Croix Bleue Medavie Stadium

Touchdown Atlantic – August 25, 2019

HOW TO GET TO AND FROM THE STADIUM

Park N' Ride

The Park N' Ride program will leave from the Moncton Coliseum Parking Lot (377 Killam Drive) and take fans on a direct transit route to the stadium. The shuttle drop off zone will be near the stadium, and will allow fans to walk directly to the gate.

- Bracelets will be available for purchase on event day at the Park 'N Ride booths in the Moncton Coliseum parking lot (cash only) – $15/person (tax included).
- Shuttles will depart from the Moncton Coliseum beginning at 11 a.m. Post-event shuttles will depart from the same drop-off location near the stadium and will continue to transport event-goers to the Moncton Coliseum until all customers have been served.
- Carpooling to the Moncton Coliseum is encouraged!
- Bracelets will be sold on a first come, first serve basis.

Codiac Transpo

Visit codiactranspo.ca and click on 'Bus Catcher' to plan the best route to the Croix Bleue Medavie Stadium. Regular fee applies: $2.75/person/ride.

Spectator Access

Event-goers who wish to bike or walk to the game can access Croix Bleue Medavie Stadium by entering the campus via regular access points:

- Antonine-Maillet Avenue (South of the Croix Bleue Medavie Stadium, general spectators)
- Antonine-Maillet Avenue (South West of the Croix Bleue Medavie Stadium, accessible entrance)
- McLaughlin Drive (East of the Croix Bleue Medavie Stadium, general spectators).

Bike lock-ups are available adjacent to the stadium box office.

Spectator Drop-off

Those spectators wishing to be dropped off at the event (personal vehicle, taxi, etc.) can do so at Hillside Drive and Massey Avenue.

Accessible Access

Accessible drop-off areas at the Croix Bleue Medavie Stadium can be accessed via Pascal-Poirier Street, with the proper accessible identification.

Croix Bleue Medavie Stadium has a partnership with Ability Transit to provide service for spectators who require special assistance. Spectators are encouraged to contact Ability Transit directly to arrange for service at (506) 853-3055.

IMPORTANT TRAFFIC INFORMATION

Parking on the Université de Moncton campus will be prohibited on Sunday, August 25. Beginning at 9:30 a.m. on game day, Université Avenue, between Clément-Cormier Street and Morton Avenue, will be closed. Both intersections will remain open.
