Enrichment workshops

Thank you for signing up for our Enrichment workshops! We are very excited to share with you all about animal enrichment, why it's important, and how you can help. Please take a moment to read the following information and safety precautions so that you arrive on site ready for a hands on experience.

Our keepers, educators, and animals look forward to meeting you soon!

Participants

- There will be up to 8 participants in the group.
- Group participants could include children, youth, and adults.
- Children must be at least 6 years of age and have the ability and willingness to listen, participate, and follow all safety instructions.
- Adult supervision is required for all children ages 6-17 years and these adults must also register and purchase a ticket to the experience at the same time as registering their child.
- One adult can be responsible for up to two children.

What to wear and bring

- Weather appropriate outdoor clothing.

Other important information

- All participants must follow the safety rules as set by the Zoo Staff. Failure to comply with these rules causing potential endangerment to themselves, other Zoo Staff, the general public, and the animals will result in immediate removal from the experience without refund.
- Participants will not have any physical contact with the animals.
- This experience includes walking and standing for up to 20 minutes.
- During the experience, participants may be exposed to possible allergens, scents or other sensitivities, such as: hay, straw, wood shavings, raw meat, flour, other baking products, and different animal scents. Although nut products will not be used, there is a small risk that the supplies used to make the enrichment items may have come into contact with nut products.
- Participants must be willing to wear a mask and gloves when preparing enrichment items that include fresh food.
- No refunds will be given within 14 days of the experience date, however, exceptions will be made in the case of illness, unforeseen circumstances or if the experience is cancelled by the Zoo.
