1. Purpose Statement

The principal purpose of the Affordable Housing – Prioritization Policy for Developments (henceforth policy) is to help facilitate the increase in affordable housing stock in the City. The policy prioritizes applications relating to the development of affordable housing projects (i.e. the policy intends to reduce overall application review times, particularly during busy periods). The policy will in turn help leverage additional provincial and federal funds to spur the increased development of affordable housing; these external funding programs are dependent on multi-governmental partnerships and assistance.

2. Application

This policy applies to any new development that involves the creation of additional affordable units; sleeping units for transitional/supportive housing in the forms of rooming houses, residential care facilities; or shelters. This may entail the construction of new building developments or the renovation, re-use and re-purposing of existing buildings.

This policy applies broadly to all applicable departments of the City of Moncton and includes the following application types. The list does not preclude other application types that are not listed or will be implemented in the future relating to development for affordable housing projects.

3. Definitions

Affordable unit means a residential dwelling unit that is rented at 80% or less of the Median Market Rent (MMR), as defined by the latest Canada Mortgage and Housing Corporation (CMHC) annual Rental Market Report. An affordable unit may also include a dwelling unit that is otherwise deemed affordable through another provincial or CMHC program.

Development means ‘development’ as defined in the Community Planning Act, SNB 2017, c 19.

Emergency housing means a facility providing temporary, short-term accommodation for homeless individuals and families. Emergency housing includes such facilities as, but is not limited to, homeless shelters. This may or may not include other services such as food, clothing or counselling.

Short-term commercial rentals are rentals under 30 days and include those listed on online platforms such as Airbnb and VRBO.

Sleeping unit means a room used or intended to be used for sleeping, or sleeping and living purposes, which may include a sink or a washroom, but does not include cooking facilities. Washroom and/or cooking facilities may be shared.

Supportive housing means housing that provides a physical environment that is specifically designed to be safe, secure, enabling and home-like, with support services such as social services, provision of meals, housekeeping and social and recreational activities, in order to maximize residents’ independence, privacy and dignity. Supportive housing is a subtype of a residential care facility.

Transitional housing means housing that is intended to offer a supportive living environment for its residents, including offering them the experience, tools, knowledge and opportunities for social and skill development to become more independent. It is considered an intermediate step between emergency housing and supportive housing, and has limits on how long an individual or family can stay. Stays are typically between three months and three years. Transitional housing is a subtype of a residential care facility.

The following terms are defined in the Zoning By-law # Z-213:

4. Policy

Administration and Authority

- (1) Council delegates the responsibility of administering the policy to Administration in accordance with the following provisions.
- (2) Administration may delegate a City representative to administer the policy and render decisions on acceptance.

Requirements

- (3) The owner must be registered as a Corporation under the Business Corporation Act, SNB 1981, c B-9.1 or a Non-profit Organization or Non-profit Company under the Companies Act, RSNB 1973, c C-13.
- (4) The subject property shall not be subject to any outstanding work orders or any other enforcement procedures of the City.
- (5) The subject property shall not be in a position of tax arrears or downtown Business

Improvement Area contribution.

- (6) The development must include a minimum of:
- (a) Five (5) affordable units; or sleeping units for a residential care facility or rooming house for transitional housing or supportive housing needs;
 - (b) Five (5) beds for a shelter;
 - (c) 30% of all residential dwelling units as affordable units, where the building development is solely a multiple unit dwelling;
 - (d) 30% of the gross floor area of the building development as affordable units, which includes the common areas associated with the dwelling units, where the building contains a mix of uses; or
 - (e) 30% of the gross floor area of the building development as sleeping units for a residential care facility or rooming house for transitional/supportive housing needs, which includes the common areas associated with the use, where the building contains a mix of uses.

Implementation

- (7) Affordable housing application prioritization shall take place during the internal review process (i.e. pre-application and filed application review stages) and shall not be used to displace other applications from pre-established timelines and application milestones, which have been communicated to clients of other applications.
- (8) An affordable housing application shall not be prioritized over an application in which a review has commenced.

Conditions

- (9) Affordable units or sleeping units for transitional housing or supportive housing shall not be used for short-term commercial rental.

Governmental Project

- (10) Notwithstanding all other requirements of this policy, where the affordable housing project is proposed on behalf of or under the direction of a governmental organization, the application shall automatically be accepted under the policy without need for application, review and acceptance.

5. Application and Review Process

- (1) Any applicant wishing to be considered for acceptance under this program must complete and submit an Application Form (see Appendix A) to the City at the pre-application stage of the process (e.g. first appointment or meeting with front-line application staff, which may vary depending on the application type and nature of approvals required for the project).

- (2) Application does not require a fee. (Note: The applicant is responsible to pay all other applicable fees to the City relating to the development of the affordable housing project.)
- (3) The application will be reviewed and approved by Administration or a delegate thereof, in accordance with section '4. Policy.'
- (4) Upon acceptance and to ensure effective implementation, notification shall be given to all applicable departments of the City as per section '2. Application' of this policy.
- (5) All departments listed under the table of section '2. Application' shall commit to prioritizing the review of applications relating to the development of affordable housing projects in the City of Moncton.
