

2017 INDUCTEE

Patty BLANCHARD

Athlete - Athletics

Patty Blanchard was a natural runner from a young age and has not stopped since. Competing in eight Canadian national teams in road races, track and field and cross country, her talents have brought her all over the world. Blanchard broke four World Masters records, 11 Canadian Masters records and 37 New Brunswick age-group records and currently owns six existing provincial open records, which have stood since the 1980s and 1990s. She has received numerous sport awards from organizations such as Canadian Interuniversity Sport, Atlantic University Sport, and Radio-Canada. Blanchard was inducted in Run NB Hall of Fame in 2010 and the NB Sports Hall of Fame in 2016.
