

2015 INDUCTEE

Eldon HAMILTON

Athlete – Baseball

Eldon Hamilton was an outstanding pitcher who played on various championship teams. He was a fearless competitor who was always handed the ball in big game situations. Eldon had a major league curve, an amazing slider and above average fastball. As a teammate, his leadership qualities were exceptional, and he brought out the best in all his teammates. In 1967, he was invited to try out for the Canadian National Baseball team to participate in the Pan-Am Games. Eldon was also inducted into both Moncton and Dieppe's Sports Wall of Fame as a member of the Moncton Schooners and Dieppe Red Sox.
