Athlete – Basketball

Named to the Canadian Basketball team in 1970, Joyce competed in the 1970-71 World and 1971 Pan-American Championships and was named captain of the Canadian squad for the 1976 Olympics. Her athletic career started at Moncton High, where she participated in basketball, field hockey and track for the Purple Knightettes. Later she became an instructor and coach at UNB, leading teams to AUAA first place standings in field hockey and basketball. She was named AUAA Coach of the Year three times and is a member of the NB Sports Hall of Fame.
