

1989 INDUCTEE

Jerry DOIRON JR.

Athlete – Boxing

A member of the Canadian Boxing Hall of Fame, Jerry Jr. has contributed to the sport in and outside the ring. Before retiring from the ring, he was New York Golden Gloves finalist in 1966 and won the 1972 K.W. Welter Weight title and the Ontario Middleweight title in 1974. After retiring, he took on various roles in boxing, as a coach, manager and promoter. As a manager, Jerry Jr. has successfully managed many athletes who went on to win both amateur and professional titles. Jerry is the only New Brunswicker to ever be elected three times as President of the Canadian Professional Boxing Federation. He also served as Chairman of the Moncton Boxing and Wrestling Commission for 21 years (1989-2010). He is affectionately referred to as Mr. Boxing Canada for his historic knowledge of the sport, nation wide.

