

1986 INDUCTEE

Lenny LAVOIE

Athlete – Boxing

Inducted into the Canadian Boxing Hall of Fame in 1982, Lenny Lavoie got his start by sparring with Jim Mooney, the Maritime Welterweight Champion of the 1930s. By 1941, Lenny had turned pro, and held the Maritime Lightweight title for the next five years. After retirement, he coached boxing, trained the 1979 Hardy Cup winning Hawks and coached basketball.

