

1995 INDUCTEE

Vance Stewart FRASER

Athlete - Football

Stewart Fraser's football career was launched with a provincial championship for the Harrison Trimble Trojans in 1975. At UNB, he was named All Canadian and was a member of the AUAA all-star team. That led to a CFL draft by the Saskatchewan Roughriders where he played five seasons before moving to the Ottawa Roughriders. In 1983 Stewart was awarded the CFL Special Team Player of the Year Award. He retired in 1986.
