

2016 INDUCTEE

James "Jim" BAXTER

---

Athlete – Golf

James (Jim) Baxter became a professional golfer in 1966. He is one of the most successful playing professionals in Atlantic Canada, an inspiration to golfers in the region. He often won championships in Moncton, Amherst and Parrsboro, and he placed 4th in both the Canadian Club Professional Championship and Canadian Senior P.G.A. Seniors' Championship. Jim also won three Atlantic P.G.A. Championships. In 1998, he received the Atlantic P.G.A. Teaching Professional of the Year Award. He influenced many young golfers over the years, played with tremendous class, and has been one of the greatest ambassadors for the sport of golf in Moncton and across Canada.

