Charles
BOURGEOIS

Athlete – Hockey

After skating to a national championship with the 1980-81 Les Aigles Bleus and being named to the All Canadian Team, Charlie Bourgeois played 11 seasons of pro hockey with the NHL, CHL, AHL and in Europe. Most of his career was with the Calgary Flames and St. Louis Blues. Upon retirement from the pros, he founded his own hockey school and volunteered with the NB Special Olympics. The Charlie Bourgeois Charity Golf Classic has raised more than $60,000.
