

1989 INDUCTEE

Clarence "Cail" BASTARACHE

Athlete – Hockey

Voted most popular hockey player by Moncton Hawks fans, Clarence "Cail" Bastarache was considered one of the best defensemen in Maritime hockey. He played both junior and senior hockey in Moncton, spending time with the Moncton Maroons and joining teams in Sherbrooke, Québec, Sydney and New Glasgow, Nova Scotia. During a three year stint with the Moncton Hawks, he played in seven championship play-offs.

