

2006 INDUCTEE

Gary HARMER

Athlete – Hockey

Gary Harmer, an exceptional hockey player who demonstrated both dedication and ability, played for the Moncton Beavers in 1959-60, and won the Maritime Title. It was from this starting point that Gary's talent began to be noticed. He was signed to the Boston Bruins sponsored Niagara Falls Jr. Flyers, and later went on to play for the CHL's Minneapolis Bruins, and was later traded to the St. Louis Braves. In 1965-66, Gary continued his professional career by playing for the IHL's Toledo Blades and spent the following two years with the Des Moines Oak Leafs. An injury caused him to retire from his professional career, but he came out of retirement to play with the Richibucto Bears who won the Eastern Canadian Title. This team later became the Moncton Bears, with whom he won the Atlantic Canadian Intermediate Title.

