

1993 INDUCTEE

George BELL

Athlete – Hockey

George Bell played both right wing and defence for the Allan Cup winning Moncton Hawks. After the demise of the Hawks, he joined the Moncton Maroons and then went on to play senior hockey in Québec before joining the RCAF during the Second World War. His prowess with the Halifax RCAF team won him a place on the Sports Wall of Fame in that city. After the war he played and coached with the Hawks and played several games for the Boston Bruins.

