

1986 INDUCTEE

Gordon "Gordie" DRILLON

Athlete – Hockey

Playing for the Toronto Maple Leafs in 1942, Gordie Drillon went all the way to a Stanley Cup win. His tenure on the Leafs lasted from 1936-42, and then he played one season for the Montreal Canadiens. During his career, he was named leading scorer for the 1937-38 season was three-time all-star and won the NHL Art Ross and Lady Byng trophies. Gordie is a member of the Canadian and NB Sports Halls of Fame and the Canadian Hockey Hall of Fame.

