

2012 INDUCTEE

Harold "Dud" JAMES

Athlete – Hockey

Harold (Dud) James started his career in Sunny Brae and went on to be one of the cleverest centremen in Moncton's long hockey history. He starred with the legendary Moncton Hawks who won Allan Cup national championships in 1932-33 and 1933-34. He played on two more Maritime senior champion teams. Following his playing career, James coached Moncton Maroons to three consecutive Maritime senior titles. The Dud James Arena was named in his honor. He passed away in 1971 at the age of 69.

