

1991 INDUCTEE

Ron ANDERSON

Athlete – Hockey

Ron Anderson's NHL career included on-ice stints with the Boston Bruins and the Washington Capitals. He also served as professional scout for the Chicago Black Hawks. His hockey career began in Moncton with the Junior Seals and Senior Alpines. While playing for the Boston University Terriers in the 1970s, the team won three US national titles. While playing for the Boston Braves in 1974-75 he was named AHL Rookie of the Year.

