Ronald J. LEBLANC

Athlete – Hockey

From amateur to professional to community, Ronald LeBlanc first showed his athletic talent at the hockey rink, beginning in the late 1960s with Peewee leagues and including a stint with the Hamilton Red Wings Jr. A Hockey Team and a draft to the Montreal Canadiens in 1972. Named athlete of the year in high school and university, he played for the Moncton Hawks Hardy Championship team in 1978-79. He played for, and coached the Université de Moncton Aigles Bleus. Ronald gave direction to rhythmic gymnastics, minor hockey and track and field and was inducted into the New Brunswick Sports Hall of Fame in 2004.
