

2001 INDUCTEE

Giovanni "Jean" CORAZZA

Athlete - Track and Field

The youngest 200-foot javelin thrower in New Brunswick in the 1970s, Giovanni "Jean" Corazza was provincial high school champion for three years. In a career that lasted 10 years, he won the Atlantic Men's Championship five times. He was always ranked first or second in Canada, competing at the World Cup Track and Field, World Student Games and Pan Pacific Games. He won a place on the 1980 Olympic team but because of Canada's boycott was unable to compete.
