

2023 INDUCTEE

MONCTON METS Baseball Team

(1985–1989)

Team – Baseball

The Moncton Mets baseball team of 1985-1989 saw a tremendous number of achievements throughout their time together. Between those five years, the team won five consecutive New Brunswick Championships, four consecutive Atlantic Championships, two Nova Scotia Championships and a bronze medal at the National Championship. Their continued success brought excitement and pride to the baseball community, working hard on the field and inspiring young athletes on their days off. The Moncton Mets would see up to 2,000 fans cheering them on from the bleachers at Kiwanis Park. As a newly formed team, they became an inspiration to young baseball players across the community.

TEAM MEMBERS: Glenn Arsenault, Rodney Babcock, Michael Baiani (trainer), Terry Beek, Luc Belliveau, Mike BeLong, Ray Bourque, Richard Boutot, Ronnie Bourque, Bob Bowser (player and coach), Glenn Burt, Ralph Chambers (player and coach), Pat Collette, Don Cormier, Rhéal Cormier, Terry Coyle, Bobby Dupuis, Laurier Fecteau, Jean Fortin, Dino Gallant, Gary Gibbon, Cleo Godin, Ron Hardy, Rich Houser, Jamie Hynes, Alan Jones, Ross Kidney, Bob LeBlanc, Danny LeBlanc (trainer), Bill Lee, Mark Letterick, Grant Lipscombe, Paul Marcoux, Bill McBeath, Stephen McWilliam, Gary Melanson, Tim Mellon, Charlie Michelin, Ed Mulvey, Ron Munro, Jean-Paul Richard, Bob Scott, Doug Simunic, Peter Slauta (coach), John Walchuck.

