

2016 INDUCTEE

Ian FOWLER

Builder - All Round

Ian Fowler helped shape Moncton as the sports tourism hub of Atlantic Canada. As a General Manager for the City of Moncton, he was instrumental in establishing Sports Moncton, a group created to attract sport tourism. The 2010 IAAF World Junior Championship and 2015 Women's World Cup are examples of world-class events he helped bring to Moncton. Other successes include the construction of the CN Sportplex, Moncton Stadium and the Downtown Centre. The Ian Fowler Executive of the Year Award is an annual National Basketball League of Canada award, named in his honour for his role in sport development in Moncton. Ian's passion for basketball compelled him to start the Moncton Kiwanis Minor Basketball Association. In 2013, he was inducted into the Athletics Canada Hall of Fame.

