Pat MURPHY

Builder – Basketball

Pat Murphy has held multiple roles as a basketball official, administrator, educator and organizer, and has played a vital role in the basketball community. For the Greater Moncton area, he has been refereeing, organizing, and teaching clinics, evaluating and supervising officials, assigning referees to games and acting as zone representative. He is a founding member of the New Brunswick Association of Approved Basketball Officials and helped set the groundwork for forming the Canadian Association of Basketball Officials. He also introduced the process of assigning officials to games, which was adopted by the provincial association. He was the honorary chairman of the Moncton Coca-Cola Hoop Classic in 1988 and received the Wink Wilcox award from the Canadian Association of Basketball Officials in 1998.
