

1988 INDUCTEE

Earl MCAULEY

Builder – Bowling

Known in Moncton as "Mr. Bowling", Earl McAuley invested more than 50 years in the recreational sport. He competed with distinction on the local, regional, provincial and national levels but gave even more time and energy to promoting bowling. Earl reported local results to media, wrote countless bowling columns for the Moncton Times & Transcript and helped launch a local Cable TV live bowling series. He was inducted into the International Bowling Hall of Fame in 1987.

