

1988

INDUCTEE

Dewar JUDSON

Builder – Hockey

A founder of the Maritime Hockey Referees Association, Dewar Judson's 30-year career spanned 2600 games. After moving to Moncton in 1946, he quickly became known as one of the best hockey referees, officiating at Memorial and Allan Cup games as well as collegiate championships and a pre-season NHL exhibition. In the 1950s, Dewar officiated at every major final series, from juvenile to Atlantic Senior.

