Jean PERRON

Builder – Hockey

Jean Perron's coaching career began in 1973 with the Université de Moncton men's hockey team, Les Aigles Bleus. He coached the team to consecutive Canadian Interuniversity Athletic Union Championships in 1981-82 and in 1982-1983 and was named coach of the year in Canada in 1982-83. Jean is considered by many as being responsible for shaping and building the team into a powerhouse. Their respected presence in intercollegiate hockey, regionally and nationally, still stands. Jean went on to coach the Montreal Canadiens to a Stanley Cup victory in 1986. He was the 12th NHL rookie coach to win the Stanley Cup.
