Peter HANSON

Builder – Hockey

When the New Brunswick Central Midget Hockey League was established in 1970, Peter Hanson was selected as president. Thirty-five years later, he was still holding the post, overseeing a league that at times has spanned 38 teams and 750 players. A community volunteer with boundless energy, Peter officiated at more than 3500 hockey games and spent countless hours encouraging thousands of young people and their families, both on and off the ice.
