

2009 INDUCTEE

Cyril Edward WEATHERDON

Builder – Marksmanship

Edward Weatherdon is a top-notch target shooter and coach. A retired Captain in the Canadian Forces and former Commanding Officer of 580 A/M Hugh Campbell Squadron (1979-1995), Weatherdon has coached and trained cadets and youth for more than 30 years, helping them win more than 50 marksmanship championships. He served as assistant coach and chief financial officer of the 2003 NB Canada Winter Games Air Rifle/Air Pistol team. The author of a target shooting training manual, Weatherdon was responsible for cadet marksmanship from 1987-2004 for the Royal New Brunswick Rifle Association. A Level II course conductor for the national coaching certification program, he was a Major Official for target shooting at the 2003 Canada Winter Games. Weatherdon is a gold and silver medalist for the Dominion of Canada Rifle Association and the Military Sports Hall of Fame inducted him into the Canadian Forces Sports Honour Roll in 2005.

