HAROLD AGNEW

Builder - Special Olympics

Glen Agnew stands with New Brunswick's Special Olympians as a dedicated coach, administrator, fundraiser and champion. Thanks to Agnew's efforts over three decades, the Special Olympic program in Greater Moncton has grown significantly to boast seven sports, 160 athletes, 35 coaches and dozens of volunteers. Agnew has coached Special Olympians in floor hockey, softball, bowling, snowshoeing, basketball, and track and field. He has served as a member of the NB Special Olympics Program Committee and its Board of Directors, as well as serving on the National Council for Special Olympics. In 2007 Agnew served as a coach for the World Summer Games in Shanghai, China. His commitment has been recognized by numerous awards over the years, including Award of Distinction for Outstanding Service in 1988, Coach of the Year in 1987 and '94, Harry Red Foster Award for National Distinction in 1992, and the Olympic and Government of Canada medal as a coach in the Moncton area.
