

1997 INDUCTEE

Art and Betty MACFARLANE

Builder - Track and Field

Art and Betty Macfarlane were instrumental in building track and field in New Brunswick, devoting more than 40 years to the sport. They served as senior officials for the Atlantic Throws team in the 1976 Olympics, the first World Cup Championship in 1977 and the 1978 Commonwealth Games. Together they have served on many committees and hosted numerous clinics throughout the province.

