

2021 INDUCTEE

Jeremy STEEVES

Athlete - Football

Jeremy Steeves' started his football career as a member of the 1993 PeeWee division provincial champion Riverview Lions. He was a standout player for Riverview High School and Team New Brunswick. Following graduation, he excelled at free safety for St. Francis Xavier University, where he holds the X-Men record for interception return yards (369) and has the 2nd most career interceptions (19). He earned the CIS Rookie of the Year Award in 2000 and defensive 1st Team All Canadian honors in 2003. He was drafted in 2005 to the Hamilton Tiger Cats of the Canadian Football League but was injured on the first day of training camp. In 2007, while working on a master's degree in Biomechanics at the University of Tennessee (UT) he was scouted by the Edmonton Eskimos and played one CFL season with them before returning to UT to complete his Ph.D. in Exercise Physiology and earn a second master's degree in public health from John Hopkins University. Jeremy's athletic and academic achievements are remarkable his positive influence is felt by everyone he encounters.

