Lawrence FORBES

Builder – Curling

Lawrence Forbes' curling career began in Moncton in 2000 as a minor official in the Canadian Junior Karcher Championship. He then went on to pursue a meaningful journey to becoming a provincial, national, and international official. Forbes has occupied the technical roles of Chief, Deputy Chief and Game Umpire for major events such as the Curling Canada Championships and World Curling Federation Championships. He is currently a level four Chief Umpire, and a member of a small group of individuals who ensures fair field of play at the highest levels of the sport in our country. Lawrence has also played a major role in mentoring new officials as they graduate from smaller club events, all the way to their first appearance on the big stage. This relentless mentorship is critical to the continued success of curling in Canada. Lawrence has been nothing short of exemplary in his knowledge of curling, his natural leadership, his attention to detail, and his respectful relationships maintained with the athletes he officiates.
