

1989 INDUCTEE

Lewisville JR. KEEFE CUBS (1951-1954)

Team – Baseball

The Cubs dominated Maritime baseball from 1951-54, winning four consecutive NB Junior Championships and two Maritime Crowns. Seven out of 38 players were signed to professional ball contracts. Sponsored by Jack Keefe and coached by Eugène "Foggy" Boudreau, the team was also known as the Lewisville Keefe Cubs.

Gery Alward (54), Raoul Arsenault (assistant manager 51 - manager 52, 53, 54), Eddie Belliveau (51-54), Paul Bordage (batboy 54), Eddie Booth (51,52,53), Gene "Foggy" Boudreau (coach, 51-54), Jackie Bourgeois (54), Keith Bourgeois (53-54), Val Caissie (51-53), Frank Cleveland (53), Laurier "Corky" Cormier (51-54), Steve Davis (53), Alfred "Duke" Doucet (51-52), Roger "Magee" Dupuis (batboy 51-52), Bobby Fougere (52-54), Pete Gauvin (assistant coach 51), Paul Goguen (51-52), Johnny Gordon (assistant coach 52-54), Jimmy Hopper (51-52), Darrell Hurley (54), Jack Keefe president and sponsor 51-54, Gerry Lavoie (assistant coach 54), Alfred "Lulu" LeBlanc (53-54), Bliss Lowerison (51), Allie "Red" Maddison (54), Murray McClenaghan (51-52), Russell "Mert" McClenaghan (51-53), Norm Melanson (52), Art Mellish (manager and assistant coach 51), Dick Mellish (51), Don Mitchell (52-53), Norm "Red" Mullins (51-54), Johnny Neilson (51-53), Keith Nelson (54), Charles "Chuck" Ogden (51-53), Bobby Rae (51-52), Norm "Indian Jack" Richard (batboy 53), Ronnie Robichaud (53), Don Simmons (54), Kenny Smith (51), Ron Spencer (51-52), Ray "Toughie" Steeves (51-52), Eddie St. Pierre (51-54), Fred Taylor (51), Rod Trites (51-53), Paul Waldorf (51), Eugene "Farmer" White (52-53), Roscoe Wilson (52-4).

