

1987

INDUCTEE

Les AIGLES BLEUS (1980-1981)

Team – Hockey

A star team with star players. That sums up Les Aigles Bleus in the 1980-81 seasons. The team was the first in Atlantic Canada to win the CIAU hockey title, with consecutive wins in 1981 and 1982. Winning two AUAA championships from 1980-82, members of the team scooped up all-star positions, won trophies for MVP, best team spirit, on-ice sportsmanship and academic achievement. The team is a member of the NB Sports Hall of Fame.

Michel Béchar, Bob Bellefleur (goalie coach), François Bessette, Roch Bois, Raoul Boudreau, Charles Bourgeois, Jean-François Boutin, Michel Breau, Jean-Claude Charest, Jon Coster, Louis Durocher, Benoît Fortier, Claude Gagné (trainer), Kevin Gaudet, Denis Gingras (assistant coach), Alfred Goguen, Michel Laforest, Mario Larouche, Jean LeBlanc (equipment), Ronnie LeBlanc (assistant coach), Rémi Lévesque, Denis Marquis, Pat Morgan, Jean Perron (head coach), Jacques Plante, François Robert, Denis Rochon, Jean Sansfaçon, Benoit Savoie (statistician), Yvon Tremblay (manager).

