

1991

INDUCTEE

New Brunswick HAWKS (1981-1982)

Team – Hockey

Co-owned by the Chicago Black Hawks and the Toronto Maple Leafs, the New Brunswick Hawks brought AHL games to Moncton in 1977. Four years later, hockey fans celebrated as the Hawks won the Calder Cup. Coached by Orval Tessier, the Hawks boasted an all-star cast in their championship season which included 48 wins, 21 losses and 11 ties. Russ Adams, Louis Bégin, Mike Biani (assistant trainer), Kim Davis, Don Dietrich, Dave Ezard, Dave Farrish, John Gibson, Mel Hewitt, Bobby Janecyk, Mike Kaszycki, Randy Lacey (trainer), Steve Larmer, Lowell Loveday, Steve Ludzik, Martin Maglay, Lloyd Melanson (business manager), Jack O'Callaghan, Billy Riley, Florent Robidoux, Sean Simpson, Warren Skorodenski, Orval Tessier (coach), Gary Wheller (chairman), Rob Willard, Bart Yachimec, Brian Young, Mikes Zaharko.

